Dear Eleanor,

You remember correctly - but not completely. Not only did my father come from Andor, I also came from Andor! (Arrived in U.S. in 1930).

I recall discussing this with you - and if I remember correctly you are of the Efran family. If this is so then we may be related through the author of the book you mention (י'דית אפראם).

On pp 65 you will find that Mr. Efran's grandfather's sister was married to אבנר'ס בן אבנר'ס - my great-grandfather (my mother's father's father).

For my father's family see pages 72 - 74. You will see on p. 74 that אפרים אפרים of Argentina was a son in law of אפרים (my great grandfather) - the husband of my grandfather's (ג'רשון - real name ג'ורג' ארנסט) sister. I am named for him - and for the aforementioned 'ג'רשון' my mother's grandfather.

So much for genealogy - "Cousin"
Eteamor.

What do you know of "our" family?

(Spoke yesterday to Gertrude Felbam of Louisville - daughter of the late David Karp, a son of ג'רשון - and a brother-in-law of ג'ורג' ארנסט.)

My fondest good wishes to Eli - and Debby and I join in Karp's happy Hanukkah to the Polinen's.
